

Allie Jo Shipman, PharmD, MBA (2017-2018): Allie Jo is the Director of State Policy for the National Alliance of State Pharmacy Associations (NASPA). In this role, she assists state pharmacy associations and NASPA associate members in understanding state policy trends and innovations through state policy research and resource development. She focuses primarily on issues related to scope of practice and payment for pharmacists' patient care services. Prior to joining NASPA, Allie Jo served as the Associate Director of State Government Affairs for NCPA.