

2014 NCPA Outstanding Adherence Practitioner Award

The NCPA Outstanding Adherence Practitioner Award recognizes a community pharmacist who demonstrates a commitment to improving medication adherence and improving patient outcomes in a community pharmacy setting.

The winner of this award will receive an engraved commemorative plaque, a $500 cash award, $1,000 to the school/college of pharmacy designated by the award recipient, travel to NCPA's 116th Annual Convention and Trade Exposition, October 18-22, 2014, in Austin, TX, accommodations for up to three nights, and a complimentary convention registration.

Eligibility

Candidates for the NCPA Outstanding Adherence Practitioner Award must be a pharmacist owner, manager or staff pharmacist of an independent community pharmacy and a current NCPA member. Self-nominations are acceptable.

Award Criteria

The NCPA Outstanding Adherence Practitioner Award will be presented to a community pharmacist who has made a significant effort in the field of patient medication adherence services. This should be demonstrated through one or more of the following criteria:

- 1) Demonstration of a continuous commitment to patient adherence services;
- 2) Implementation of coordinated adherence services involving other health care professionals;
- 3) Documentation of improved patient medication adherence; and/or
- 4) Promotion of availability and value of pharmacy-based adherence services

Submissions
