

National Community Pharmacists Association Executive Residency Application Information

The National Community Pharmacists Association Executive Residency in Association Management is a springboard into a career of association work and leadership in health care. The NCPA Executive Resident gains insight and experience in association management through involvement with the NCPA Innovation Center and contributions to the departments of Strategic Initiatives, Professional Affairs, Government Affairs, Membership, Communications, Operations, and Conventions and Meetings. The Executive Resident is given numerous opportunities to travel and network with other health care professionals and leaders.

TIME COMMITMENT

The National Community Pharmacists Association (NCPA) Executive Residency is a one-year term beginning July 1. Some travel will be expected.

LOCATION

NCPA's is located in Old Town Alexandria, VA, only five miles from the heart of downtown Washington D.C. and walking distance to the King Street Metro Station.

COMPENSATION

NCPA's resident receives a competitive salary and benefits package including 21 days PTO, federal holidays, health/dental/vision insurance with optional HSA, life and disability insurance options, and eligibility for a 401(k) retirement savings plan. Relocation assistance is also available.

EXPLORING LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL

The NCPA Executive Residency Program prepares a Doctor of Pharmacy graduate for a career in association management or independent pharmacy. This non-traditional opportunity affords the resident a diverse experience working with multiple departments within NCPA.

INNOVATION

The resident is based out of the Innovation Center. NCPA's Innovation Center provides pharmacy owners the education, support and tools they need to efficiently and effectively run their business. From promoting ownership to developing and marketing new programming, the resident will hone in on his or her leadership capabilities and business skills.

COMMUNICATIONS

NCPA is responsible for gathering, designing, publishing and disseminating information that advocates for and benefits pharmacy owners. The resident's written and oral communication skills will be enhanced as he or she drafts articles for America's Pharmacist magazine or other communications, as well as represents NCPA with industry stakeholders.

CONNECT

NCPA values strong relationships within the health care sector. During the resident's tenure at NCPA, he or she will network with innovative members, pharmacy organizations, and industry thought leaders.

ADVOCACY

NCPA's government affairs team works on Capitol Hill to defend the interests of the nation's community pharmacists and their patients. Through committee hearings, special projects, and collaboration with other pharmacy associations, the resident will be fundamentally aware of the importance of advocacy and grassroots efforts.
