

Linda Mick, PharmD (2004-2005): After residency, Linda collaborated with health care leaders to develop MTM protocols and what we know now as Mirixa. She would eventually go back to the Lone Star State where she practiced in a community setting and now as a pharmacy consultant.