

Saturday October 26th

7:30am-9:00am Chapter Officer's Breakfast (Invitation Only)

A mix of learning how to develop leaders within your chapter from a national manager trainer as well as time to network and connect with officers from your region and Student Leadership Council representatives. Hear how to manage your chapters and how to motivate others to want to work hard for you. NEW THIS YEAR we will be passing business plan competition certificates and plaques. Speakers: Doug Hoey, NCPA CEO, Bill Osborn, NCPA President, Amy Corcoran, Alliance Residential Company National Trainer

9:00am- 10:00am Challenge Showcase

Learn about the various Challenges available to your chapter to participate in, from both SLC members, and teams that have won the Challenges in years past. Included in the showcase are the Legislative Advocacy Challenge, Community Health Challenge, Simplify My Meds Challenge, and the Business Plan Competition. This will be an interactive showcase, and one that you won't want to miss!

10:00am-11:00am Young Entrepreneurs

Engage with a panel of current independent community pharmacy entrepreneurs who have made their marks as owners at a young age. Hear about the diverse entrepreneurial career paths within pharmacy, and the secrets to their success in such a short amount of time.

11:00am-12:00pm Options for Finding a Pharmacy to Buy

Discuss the ways to find a pharmacy for purchase as well as the resources available to you through your wholesaler.

12pm-1pm Networking lunch Sponsored by McKesson

1:30pm-3:30pm 16th Annual Good Neighbor Pharmacy NCPA Pruitt-Schutte Student Business Plan Competition

Three schools will be vying for the top spot at the 16th Annual Good Neighbor Pharmacy NCPA Pruitt-Schutte Student Business Plan Competition. Come and see first-hand the excitement around the live presentations of the Annual Business Plan Competition. This top spot earns them a chance to win cash for their school and a complimentary trip to the NCPA Multiple Locations Conference in Florida, at the end of February and beginning of March 2020. For the fifth consecutive year will be highlighting a former Business Plan Competition participant who is now a successful independent pharmacy owner. Teams presenting: University of Georgia, University of Oklahoma, University of Texas at Austin

3:30-4:30pm Residency Panel

Hear from residents and fellows from a variety of pharmacy disciplines including NCPA's Executive Residency, UNC's Independent Pharmacy Ownership Residency and more.

5:30pm-6:30pm Student Networking

Mingle with student pharmacists and recent graduates, including current and former Student Leadership Council representatives, as you wind down from a jam-packed day of student programming. Make sure to bring your business cards and update your Linked In account!

6:30pm Opening Reception

Sunday October 27th

9:30am-11:30am Opening General Session: Keynote Rolf Benirschke

11:30am-1:30pm Business for Success Student Luncheon

Learn from financial lenders and business coaches the steps that you need to take to become a successful entrepreneur in independent pharmacy, as well as insight into keeping your personal finances and credit check.

1:30pm-3:30pm Community Pharmacy Residency Showcase

This is your opportunity to talk with residency programs from all across the country. Find out first-hand what some of these programs can offer you in the years ahead.

2:30pm-4:00pm Poster Symposium

First -third place prizes will be awarded for business plan posters. This is also a great chance to network with peers and pharmacists inside and outside of your region, and to get inspired by how others are impacting independent pharmacy.

3:30-4:00pm NEW! OTC Challenge Jeopardy style competition amongst chapters for bragging rights. Chapters can join with other chapters in their region to be an unstoppable force.

4:00pm-5:30pm NCPA Foundation Awards Ceremony

Presidential scholars, Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year, and Chapter of the Year are among the highlights during this awards ceremony sponsored by the NCPA Foundation.